Week #15—The Sayings Of God

Isaiah 55

Isaiah 6 was a picture of God seated on His throne, high and lifted up. Isaiah 53 was a picture of Jesus as the suffering servant, bruised, pierced and crushed for our sins. Now Isaiah 55 is the gallery of the sayings of God given through Isaiah. Here are some of the popular verses frequently quoted for the Old Testament. You'll find this refreshing as you remember these verses!

God's Invitation For All—He offers his invitation for all those who are hungry & thirsty but can't afford to buy milk to drink or bread to eat. Look at some of the other great invitations that God gives:

Matt 4:19

Matt 11:28

Matt 14:29

Matt 19:21

Matt 22:4

Matt 25:21,23,34

Mk 6:31

Lk 9:23

Jn 1:39

Jn 6:37,44

Jn 7:37

Jn 21:12

What observations can you make from these invitations from God?

What was the invitation from God that He called you with?

God's Bigger Than All—We know that God's Ways are Bigger and Higher than our ways, but why is it so difficult to accept that?

When was a time when you accept that God's ways were better than your ways? How'd that work?

What does God promise here?

God's Word Is Truer Than All—God promises that His word will not come back empty, but go forth to accomplish all that He desires.

What does Isaiah compare God's word to?

What are some of the ways that you think God accomplishes His purpose through the Word?

How does this give us comfort?

God's Praise Is Shared By All—We shall someday share together with all creation with the praise & joy of God.

When are some times that you have experienced God's leading you with Joy?

How have you known the peace of God as he had lead in your life?
