Week #18—That's It!

Isaiah 66:1-2

As we come to the end of the book of Isaiah, he doesn't exactly conclude it with "everyone lived happily ever after." Isaiah has given us a glimpse of who God is and what He is like. We often have seen God through the lenses of culture and churchianity. We see God the way we have been taught about God and the way we think God should look like.

Read the last verse—Is 66:24—What do you think about the way that Isaiah ends?

The God Who Reigns—We must see God in all his splendor and majesty. What does vs 1,2 tell us about God?

What does that do to our thinking that we can help God out when he needs us?

The Man Who God Approves—who is the one that God approves? Read vs2

The one who

The one who

The one who

What are the ways that some people seek God's approval?

What does Is 64:6 tell us about our righteous acts?

Who is the man who trembles at his word? Vs 5

The Chosen People—Read 10-14—What do these verses say about God's people?

What does God promise them?

The Final Judgment Of God—vss 15-24

How is the final judgment described?

Who are those who will be judged?

What is the response to God's Judgment?

How will God be glorified in His judgment?

What hope does God give?

How does this correspond with Rev 21:1-8?

The Final Response: In light of all that we have studied concerning God—What should our response be to God
